

HD Jacobs High School Youth Baseball Coaches Clinic

Harry D. Jacobs High School Youth Coaches Clinic is scheduled for January 30, 2010 at H.D. Jacobs High School in Algonquin, IL. This 2nd annual event features a diverse lineup of baseball personalities from the Chicago land area or that have ties to the area. The speakers are from all levels of the game, high school baseball to the professional level. Registration is free and open to all youth/travel coaches in the CUSD300 area.

Registration deadline is January 25, 2010, and space is limited, so send in your registration early! Send registration to: steven.shadel@d300.org

Clinic updates and any additions to the clinic lineup will be posted regularly at: ihsbaseballreport.com or contact the clinic director at: john.sarna@d300.org

Algonquin, IL (HDJ) December 10, 2009 – Pete Caliendo will headline this year's clinic. Pete's baseball experience covers a wide range of geography and responsibilities. He was just recently appointed Technical Commissioner for the 2009 World Baseball Cup held in Europe September of 2009. In 2008 was on the Jury of appeal for baseball in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China. He's been a head coach and assistant coach, instructor and clinician, scout and evaluator, author and lecturer, President and General Manager. Currently Pete serves as President of Caliendo Sports International and Pitch and Hit Club of Chicago.

The event will be held in the Competition Gym at H.D. Jacobs High School in Algonquin, Illinois. The schedule of the clinic follows:

7:00 AM – 7:30 AM

Registration, coffee, & doughnuts

7:30 AM – 8:15 AM

Terry Ayers – American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Famer

"Throw Strikes!!!!!!! and why it does not work"

8:30 AM – 9:15 AM

Kirby Smith – Illinois High School Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Famer

"Lead-up Sequences for Developing Hitting Skills"

9:30 AM – 10:15 AM

Peter Caliendo – Caliendo Sports International & International Baseball Federation

“Training your kids in practice to prepare for real game situations and adversity”

10:30 AM – 11:15 AM

Kevin Nelson – Philadelphia Phillies, AAA Catcher

“A Catching Foundation”